

Rosewater Old Dogs

~ The Loan Hound ~ Darian Roberts ~ Reephams Hotel ~
~ Portside Office National ~ L J Hooker (Woodville) ~

Sunday 21 Apr 2013

At Torrens Valley Oval – given the conditions – who would turn up – and if you did – keep your clothes clean and tidy (that's from your wife!)

The opposition at least, well a lot of them, kept themselves warm and dry, as we had to “lend” quite a few.

Rumour is that we won! Rumour only as the scribes have gone to ground – or been washed away!

The next outing:

Masters Round 3
Sunday 5 May 2013
(All day)
at Eric Sutton Oval

Rosewater Juniors

THE VERY JUNIOR

Torrential rain, wind and almost snow

Some games were called off

I suspect ours weren't – but to date, like the Old Dogs, the writers of praise in respect to our Baby Bulldogs – haven't got over their frost bite!

Rosewater V SMOSH Junior U14's

A rare outing today with SMOSH being served the mercy ruling on the Eric Sutton Oval by Rosewater

Another stunning performance by the under U14's on a week we celebrated Patrick Hillard 100th game with the club.

Goals:

Izac Rankine 7, Eddie Milera & Raymond Burns 5, Kobe Rankine 4, Jacob Sansbury & Cory Walker 2, 1 each to Tylar Morris, Nick Balchin, Kale Christopher

U16: RFC. v NORTH HAVEN

Our first home game of the season, and our first experience of a heavy wet day. The first quarter took us by surprise, although we managed to focus in the second and we had some players step up. Our third quarter was much the same as our first, but late good play had us putting a score on the board, lifting our boys in the last, with some good football. Keeping our heads up throughout, a disappointing loss with best players Jayden Brayden the likes.

Good effort, with some more work to do.
