ROSEWATER 5.0 5.3 7.7 10.13 (73)
 GLENUNGA 4.8 6.13 10.17 13.19 (97)

This is a game we let slip. We got within 7 points in the final quarter but just couldn't quite get across the line, while Glenunga steadied and with a couple of late goals, they ran out winners. We opened with an assault on the southern goals - kicking uphill and into the wind. We had three goals on the board before Glenunga scored. Then they rattled a few on, we steadied and slotted two more, for 5 goals straight, and we were right in the game with a lot of Glenunga supporters stunned - as they had assumed an easy percentage building win. Brad Horsell and Josh vines had dominated the centre and we had hot spots throughout the forwards. John Page, James Carson and Wayne Batters were all prominent, and with Brad Taheny again at his running best, we looked the goods. The avalanche expected in the second, when we went to the scoring end, did not occur. We could only manage three points and on reflection this was the quarter that "lost" us the contest. We defended well with Joel Pettersson rebounding, Scott Jacobsen desperate, and with winners in Chris Forster and George Kalogeridis on the wings. But we didn't score! Our third quarter was good. We held them and had many attacks of our own but "lost opportunities" spoil a good quarter - and kicking backwards really hurt - but we were challenging.

In the final quarter we got to within 7 points and peppered the goals. Some inaccuracy, understandable in the slosh and mud where it was hard to keep your feet, didn't help our cause. Glenunga steadied and in the final minutes put on a couple of goals to blow out the lead to 24 points! A game we should have won.

While playing golf today I hit two good balls.
I stepped on a rake. - Henny Youngman

A Grade:

Best: We had winners all over the ground in a good team effort.

1. Joel Pettersson was outstanding repelling from the backlines.
2. Well backed up by Scott Jacobsen. 3. Josh Vines and 4. Brad Horsell were very damaging, hard at the ball, and both put us into attack, and in Brad's case also provides a great target when resting in the forwards. 5. Brad Taheny ran tirelessly all day. Covered the entire oval in a great display. Others to do well included James Carson, all over the ground and 4 goals, John Page electric in the forwards and 3 goals. Chris Forster runs and tackles from his wing.
Tyson Thomas was prominent on the ball and in the forwards. Daniel Reardon very good running out of defence, Ryan Medhurst delivered a couple of telling tackles and others who contributed were Wayne Batters and George Kalogeridis. In all it was a good display - but just short of a win!

Goals: James Carson 4, John Page 3, Ben Thompson, Brad Horsell, and Brad Taheny - all 1.

B Grade:

A good showing this week. We had a couple back from the A's but this introduction of talent was to some extent negated by several unavailable on the day. One major spot for us was the performance of Ben Hall, in his first game for the Club, in the centre. A dominating performance. Also dominating and instrumental in the majority of our thrusts forward was the irrepressible "Muzza" - John Murray. His best game for the Club, in the mud, scrapping and fighting and getting the ball out - or making space and showing a clean pair of heels on a very dodgy paddock. Our best player on the day. Others to do well included Lance Billett with a forceful display at CHB, Brett Gooley all over the ground, Robbie Cains, making for the right spot every time, Alex Shaw in ruck - but also on the ground! Brian Reid, TeeJay Surace, and Darcy Heath were also in the mix.

Beau Gagliardi has been playing in B side this season. Beau has had the daunting task of playing in the backlines in a team which has struggled - he's seen plenty of the ball - and has remained resolute in his defence for the team - outstanding contribution and is only 16 years old!
